A. BIOGRAPHIES

Ernest Albert Stephens

Ernest Albert Stephens was born November 13, 1873 in Dublin, Ireland "of an old Quaker family." His parents, Albert Stephens, a soap merchant, and Jane Creeth Stephens, lived at 3 St. Lawrence Road in Dublin and were married there December 29, 1869. The records of the Society of Friends in the Society Historical Library at 6 Eustace Street in Dublin show eight generations of the Stephens family in Dublin, beginning about 1680.

He joined the Dunlop Tire Company about 1890 when they were making bicycle tires, and was an assistant sales manager for Dunlop in Buffalo when he died in 1928. It is not known whether he moved to England before or after joining Dunlop. The move from England to Rutherford, New Jersey in 1911 and then to Buffalo about 1921 were probably related to his employment with Dunlop.

Sometime prior to 1900, he moved to England where he married Helen (or Nelly) Wilson on January 3, 1900 in St. James Edgebaston, Birmingham. She was born September 28, 1875 in Birmingham.

Their first three children, Kathleen Helen, born November 6, 1901; Greta A., born March 31, 1903; and Nora Margaret, born in 1906, all were born in Coventry. Their fourth child, Joan Kathryn, was born September 27, 1909 in London.

In 1911, Ernest Stephens emigrated to the United States. His name has not yet been found in the immigration passenger lists. His family joined him in Rutherford, New Jersey the following year, sailing on the S.S. Megantic from Liverpool on December 10, 1912. The Megantic was a White Star Line ship and there is a family tradition that they just missed sailing on the Titanic.

Sometime before 1921, the family moved to Buffalo, New York, where they lived in North Park Avenue, then on Colton Drive and finally on Linden Avenue. Ernest Stephens died in Buffalo on October 9, 1928.

Ernest Albert Stephens was born on November 13, 1873 in Dublin, Ireland. His parents were Albert Stephens, a soap manufacturer, and Jane Creeth.

He began working for the Dunlop Tire Company in 1890 when they were making tires for bicycles.

On January 3, 1900, he married Helen (Nelly) Wilson in Edgebaston in the County of Birmingham, England. At the time marriage, his occupation was pneumatic tyre manufacturer and his residence was at Nant Glyn, Coventry.

They had four daughters, Kathleen Helen, born November 6, 1900 in Coventry, Greta A., born in 1903 in Coventry, Nora Margaret, born in 1906 in Coventry, and Catharine Joan, who was born in 1909 in London.

Ernest Stephens emigrated to the United States about 1911 or 1912. His family came over about a year later, sailing from Liverpool on December 10, 1912 on the S.S. Megantic. They lived in Rutherford, New Jersey.

The family relocated to Buffalo sometime around 1921. Ernest Stephens was a sales manager for the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Company in Buffalo from 1921 until his death in 1928.

Sometime after, they moved to Buffalo, New York, where he died October 9, 1928.

Family tradition says that the family surname was formerly Fitzstephens; also that they just missed sailing on the Titanic.

Kathleen Stephens told how, as a child, she had seen the Queen riding by in a large horse-drawn carriage.

Dear Christopher Andrle

Thank you for enquiry of April 9th and reply coupon.

We have Registers of births, marriages and burials of all our members in Ireland, and a quick look at the names list shows Stephens in the Dublin Register for all three. The name also occurs in the Meetings for Carlow, Waterford, Wexford and Wicklow. We have a pedigree compiled by the late T.H. Webb of the Stephens family, and a letter from William and Eliza Stephens consenting to the marriage of their daughter Christiana, 1833.

If you would like this research undertaken, and photocopies posted to you, please send 30 dollars.

We also have Creeth material.

Dear Sir:

I am researching the family of my great-grandfather, Ernest Albert STEPHENS, who was born 13 November 1873 in Dublin. When he died in 1928, his obituary said that he was from Dublin, "of an old Quaker family".

His parents were Albert STEPHENS, born 19 July 1834 in Larchfield, and died 5 April 1912 in Dublin, and Jane CREETH, born 9 February 1844 in Cootehill, and died 29 November 1923 in Rathminas. Both are buried in Temple Hill Cemetery in Dublin.

I understand that your library may contain records for this STEPHENS family. I am interested in obtaining photocopies of any records that you might have relating to this family.

If you could please advise me of the possibility of having this research done and the costs involved, I would be most appreciative.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Christopher Andrle

Hi Chris,

The link traces back to me! I discovered your site because of the reference to Maureen & I whilst I was doing a search on "Dworak."

In any event, Maureen recently mentioned the print of "Baba" . . . I started from an old B&W and "Photoshop'ped" it to the limited extent of "de-linting" it plus removed several small anomalous white dots here and there which I am pretty sure were "chips" from the print. I did not "fiddle" with "Baba's" face. I did have Photoshop adjust the contrast/brightness" range which brings the resultant digital image remarkably close to the photo in its current condition. The print has been kept out of the light for a number of decades and probably is in very good condition in the sense of it being pretty close to what it looked like originally (except for the aforementioned "chips" and several anomolous white spots which I removed).

Your interest has sparked us to get at the boxes of old photos which I suspect is in every family somewhere or other.

regards,

Dick Dworak

P.S. If you are a "Photoshop'per" and would like a not really perceptably better image "direct" from Photoshop, let me know. The image attached should OPEN in almost anything that opens images of any type, Wintel or Mac or Linux, etc.

Wow, Chris -- I'm impressed at all the hours of work you must have put into this geneological research. Thanks!

I had not known, or perhaps had not remembered, about the Quaker background. Very interesting. I will certainly send you a copy of Mom's birth certificate, etc. Our daughter, Kara, obtained an Irish passport a few years ago and wrote to Dublin, etc. in order to get the passport. I have not been a saver, so don't have much else, but do plan to look around some. I've been meaning to do that for some time -- please don't expect it.

very soon, but I won't forget.

I remember that the family lore had it that my grandfather had a ticket for $\ensuremath{\text{c}}$ the Titanic, but that last minute business forced him to miss the boat. Don't know, however, when he did arrive, but had been led to believe that it was soon (a matter of months, perhaps) after the missed trip on the Titanic. Interesting to contemplate how different things might have been had that not happened.

Thanks again for your wonderful research and response to my interest!!

I do know that my grandfather was transferred here by Dunlop. I believe that they initally lived in Rutherfurd, NJ. At least, Mom often talked about that being where she grew up. Then he was transferred to Buffalo. After he died and Mom was supporting her mother, Dunlop hired her - and that's where she met my Dad -- he had worked for other tire companies (including Siberling) from the time he graduated from Gem City Business College around 1920, in Quincy Illinois (where he was born). Then he worked for Dunlop and was also transfered to Buffalo where he met Mom. I believe that he did not know my grandfather but started after he died.

By the way, my grandfather died of Adult Onset Diabetes (called Type II now) just months before Banting and Best discovered insulin, which would have saved him. When Mom & Dad were first married, they lived for 2 years in San Mateo, CA (interestingly, just a few miles from where we now live).

They they were transferred back to Buffalo, but with a love of artichokes and the races! My grandmother lived with them from that time on, and was really almost more of the primary caretaker for me than my mother was. Baba (all the grandchildren called her that since, I believe, Armand, the first grandchild started it) was wonderful and always sweet.

However, I don't remember my grandmother or my mother telling stories about $% \left(1\right) =\left(1\right) \left(1\right) +\left(1\right) \left(1\right) \left(1\right) +\left(1\right) \left( my grandfather's family.

Dick has just bought us an incredible scanner which does photos very well.

He has scanned & printed a good picture of my grandmother, from about 1949, just shortly before she died. I've been very busy with some consulting work plus holiday stuff, so haven't looked through a big box of pictures we have. I plan to do that and now that we can easily replicate them, will send some to you.

Have a good holiday.

Re: Stephens geneology

Yes, Chris I am very interested in obtaining additional information. I had no idea my grandmother had three sisters. I don't recall any mention of Greta.

In a message dated 1/24/2004 7:39:51 PM Eastern Standard Time, chris@andrle.com writes:

During the week, I'll send you an update on my branch.

By the way, have you ever heard the story about Ernest Stephens and his ticket on the Titanic? I've been in contact with descendants of Joan Stephens in California and they had heard it also. ----- I have not heard the story, what is it?

I'd be very interested in exchanging information. I can document the Stephens family back to the 1600's if you're interested. ------ I am very interested in this. I started to track my father's side of the family about two years ago, but until now I've had no information on my mother's side.

Dear Christopher,

a very nice note an the Christmas card came from Gloria & armand in Maine giving me your address that I might Maine giving he your address that I might Meine giving about the Bennett/Wilson line. I understand you've done extensive research an the andre line. I did get a little lit - back to Hartland & realize Edith & Wilson Bennett's father was a Hartland. Right? Hartland. Right?

I have a very extensive chart recently acquired from Dr. Jack Alexander in Scotland. It goes back to 1700's a most enlighteng. Jack was here a year ago a when we met & have been in touch ever since. I could send you the Bennett line part or the website. or the whole Ilusiness if you're interested.

Whatever you've run across in the Wilson line I'd he most interested. Edith Wilson Bennett Was my grandmother. Strangy enough no one seems to know much about her family. I remember her mentioning growning up at Brown's Green We think it was same sort of a private school—maybe where her ather worked ar taught. Hartland was my brather's name (dec. 1984) We provo there is a Hartland Point in Devon but the Wilson's fixed in the Midlands. Dear Edith,

Chris Andrle

I'm glad to hear from you and apologize for taking so long to reply.

I've known about the Bennett branch of the family since I started my research back in the 1970's but have never been able to get in touch with anyone or find out more so I am very surprised to hear from you. Have you been in contact with Uncle Armand and Aunt Gloria all this time? I thought all contact had been lost when my grandmother died. I can't believe they never said anything to me although I guess I may not have ever asked them directly.

My family research project has been underway for a long time, unfortunately, the Wilson-Hartland branch is the one that I've had the least success with. I've made several attempts over the years to find out more, even to the point of hiring a researcher in England. I'm enclosing sheets showing what information I do have. I'd be very interested in any information you can add, particularly about the family of Ernest and Edith Bennett, about which I know very little.

Yes, Edith Wilson Bennett was the daughter of John Allen Wilson and Emma Hartland. John Allen Wilson is somewhat of a mystery. He was a schoolmaster. I've located records of his marriage and death but not his birth. His name is very common and so far I have been unable to find out where he came from or who his parents were. Records are good during this time period and I do expect to find him sooner or later.

I've had more success with Emma Hartland. She was born in Wolverhampton, Stafford County in 1833, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Hartland. Records are available and finding out more about this family is just a matter of finding the time to do the research.

By the way, you might be interested to know that just today I've finally found the ship's passenger list for Ernest Stephens. Many years ago, I found Helen (Wilson) Stephens and her four daughters listed on the Megantic, arriving in New York on December 21, 1912. Family tradition is that Ernest Stephens came over a year before the rest of his family, but I had never been able to find him. I'd also heard a story that he had a ticket for the Titanic but was delayed due to business reasons and sailed on the next boat. Today I found a listing for him. He arrived in New York on May 3, 1912, seven months before his family and just two weeks after the Titanic sank, on of all ships, the Lusitania. What a story!

The photo that Aunt Gloria sent you must have been of Armand and Gloria's children (my cousins) and grandchildren so I wouldn't be in it. As you can see, my sheet for the family of Ernest Bennett and Edith е

Wilson is pretty empty so I would appreciate anything you can add. I also would be interested in hearing any stories or traditions that you might have heard from the Wilson-Hartland branch of your family. Have you ever seen any old photographs or letters or documents or know of anyone else who might have anything like that? There seems to be so little information about this family.

Thanks for any help you can give.
Sincerely,

Chris, I noted from an earlier email that you said you had traced Ernest Stephens back to the late 17th century. I think it's terrific that you've done that and would be very interested in that information -- would it be possible to send a copy to me?

Thanks so much!!

Maureen's Grandparents

Hi Chris.

The link traces back to me! I discovered your site because of the reference to Maureen & I whilst I was doing a search on "Dworak."

In any event, Maureen recently mentioned the print of "Baba" . . . I started from an old B&W and "Photoshop'ped" it to the limited extent of "de-linting" it plus removed several small anomalous white dots here and there which I am pretty sure were "chips" from the print. I did not "fiddle" with "Baba's" face. I did have Photoshop adjust the contrast/brightness" range which brings the resultant digital image remarkably close to the photo in its current condition. The print has been kept out of the light for a number of decades and probably is in very good condition in the sense of it being pretty close to what it looked like originally (except for the aforementioned "chips" and several anomolous white spots which I removed).

Your interest has sparked us to get at the boxes of old photos which I suspect is in every family somewhere or other.

regards,

Dick Dworak

P.S. If you are a "Photoshop'per" and would like a not really perceptably better image "direct" from Photoshop, let me know. The image attached should OPEN in almost anything that opens images of any type, Wintel or Mac or Linux, etc.

Subject: Re: my grandfather

I do know that my grandfather was transferred here by Dunlop. I believe that they initally lived in Rutherfurd, NJ. At least, Mom often talked about that being where she grew up. Then he was transferred to Buffalo. After he died and Mom was supporting her mother, Dunlop hired her - and that's where she met my Dad -- he had worked for other tire companies (including Siberling) from the time he graduated from Gem City Business College around 1920, in Quincy Illinois (where he was born). Then he worked for Dunlop and was also transfered to Buffalo where he met Mom. I believe that he did not know my grandfather but started after he died.

By the way, my grandfather died of Adult Onset Diabetes (called Type II now) just months before Banting and Best discovered insulin, which would have saved him. When Mom & Dad were first married, they lived for 2 years in San Mateo, CA (interestingly, just a few miles from where we now live). They they were transferred back to Buffalo, but with a love of artichokes and the races! My grandmother lived with them from that time on, and was really almost more of the primary caretaker for me than my mother was. Baba (all the grandchildren called her that since, I believe, Armand, the first grandchild started it) was wonderful and always sweet.

However, I don't remember my grandmother or my mother telling stories about my grandfather's family.

Dick has just bought us an incredible scanner which does photos very well. He has scanned & printed a good picture of my grandmother, from about 1949, just shortly before she died. I've been very busy with some consulting work plus holiday stuff, so haven't looked through a big box of pictures we have. I plan to do that and now that we can easily replicate them, will send some to you.

Have a good holiday.

>Thanks so much for the birth and marriage certificate copies and also for confirming the Titanic tradition - what a great story! I know that records are available from the INS for that time period which would tell exactly when he arrived and how. I haven't got around to tracking that down yet but I might give it a try. I'd be very interested in any other stories that you might have heard about your grandfather and his family. My Dad and his brothers seem to remember very little and I didn't ask my grandmother about it when I had the chance. By the way, I know that Ernest Stephens worked for the Dunlop Tire Company beginning in the 1890's when they made bicycle tires in England and he was still working for them here in Buffalo. I am guessing that the company transferred him to the US and that was the reason the

Wow, Chris -- I'm impressed at all the hours of work you must have put into

this geneological research. Thanks!

I had not known, or perhaps had not remembered, about the Quaker background. Very interesting. I will certainly send you a copy of Mom's birth certificate, etc. Our daughter, Kara, obtained an Irish passport a few years ago and wrote to Dublin, etc. in order to get the passport. I have not been a saver, so don't have much else, but do plan to look around some. I've been meaning to do that for some time -- please don't expect it very soon, but I won't forget.

I remember that the family lore had it that my grandfather had a ticket for the Titanic, but that last minute business forced him to miss the boat. Don't know, however, when he did arrive, but had been led to believe that it was soon (a matter of months, perhaps) after the missed trip on the Titanic. Interesting to contemplate how different things might have been had that not happened.

Thanks again for your wonderful research and response to my interest!!

I had touched base with you 4 years ago when I started to looking into my family tree.

At that time I stumbled upon you website while looking for family info. I really enjoyed your story about how? Ernest Albert Stephens? had a ticket for passage on the Titanic.

My mother is Marilyn Weis Zimmerman the daughter of Nora Margaret Stephens and Howard Frederick Weis.

A couple items for your posted family tree. My mother's date of birth was July 3rd 1928. Her date of death was October 19, 2001. She is buried in Elmlawn Cemetary in Tonawanda, NY

My father Arthur B. Zimmerman was born on July 30, 1928. He died on May 5, 1976 at age 47. He too is buried in Elmlawn Cemetary in Tonawanda, NY

My sister's middle name is Susan, not Suzan. Her date of birth is July 2, 1953, born in Buffalo, NY

My birth date is March 13, 1952. I too was born in Buffalo, NY.

A question for you - I can provide additional info on both my children and my sister's children.? Any interest in this for your website?

It's good to hear from another cousin. Thanks so much for the information you sent. I'm always glad to add a few more pieces to the tree. Yes, I'd be interested in the information on your and your sister's children.

I?have no idea?what information we exchanged last time. Did I ask you if you had any family photos or other documents? I'd be happy to send copies of anything I have in return.?The web site is?only meant to be a brief outline - just enough information so that someone doing a search can make contact. At that time I stumbled upon you website while looking for family info. I really enjoyed your story about how? Ernest Albert Stephens? had a ticket for passage on the Titanic.

My mother is Marilyn Weis Zimmerman the daughter of Nora Margaret Stephens and Howard Frederick Weis.

A couple items for your posted family tree. My mother's date of birth was July 3rd 1928.

Her date of death was October 19, 2001. She is buried in Elmlawn Cemetary in Tonawanda, NY

My father Arthur B. Zimmerman was born on July 30, 1928. He died on May 5, 1976 at age 47. He too is buried in Elmlawn Cemetary in Tonawanda, NY

My sister's middle name is Susan, not Suzan. Her date of birth is July 2, 1953, born in Buffalo, NY

My birth date is March 13, 1952. I too was born in Buffalo, NY.

A question for you - I can provide additional info on both my children and my sister's children.? Any interest in this for your website?

Regards,

Gregory Stephens Zimmerman Williamsville, NY

learn

Dunlop was greatly shocked and grieved on October 10th to of the death of one of the most popular and most respected men in our organization - Ernest A. Stephens. Mr. Stephens had been actively engaged in advertising and sales work until within a week of his death. Altho in poor health for some time he had been on hand every day to capably direct Dunlop's greatest advertising campaign and at the same time to willingly

offer his wealth of experiance wherever it was needed. Mr. Stephens leaves his wife HelenW. and three daughters, Mrs. Howard Weis of 265 St. Lawrence; Mrs. Armand Andrle of 275 Sterling Avenue and Miss Joan Stephens.

Services at the Home

The funeral services were held at the home 260 Linden Avenue on

October 13th. The service was short and those attending were confined for the most part to relatives and Mr. Stephen's business associates and friends at Dunlop. Internement was made in Forest LAwn Cemetery.

Interested in Every Phase

Mr. Stephens was born in Dublin of an old Quaker family in 1873. During his service with Dunlop Mr. Stephens showed an untiring interest in in every phase of our rapid development both in Sales and production. Due to his wonderful backround and wealth of experiance he was most helpful in disposing of the many problems confronting a new business. Whenever sought he was always found willing to help or give advice with the same cheery manner and spirit of unselfishness. These characteristics endeared him in the hearts of his associates and made him one of the most popular men in our organization. It can be rightfully said that altho the work must be carried on, Dunlop can never fill the gap left by such a splendid personality.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES ORDER FOR COPIES OF SHIP PASSENGER ARRIVAL RECORDS

Dear Researcher.

Before completing the form, please read this page for ordering instructions and general information about the records that can be ordered with this form. Mail order photocopying service using this form is available ONLY from Old Military and Civil Records (NWCTB-PA), Textual Archives Services Division, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20408-0001. For more information, please write to us at the address above.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

WHAT WE HAVE: The National Archives has inbound Federal ship passenger arrival records dating back to 1820 for most east coast and gulf coast ports and a few lists dating back to 1800 for Philadelphia. Ship passenger lists in our custody are not complete. Fire, dampness, or other causes destroyed many records in the 19th century before the creating agencies transferred them to the National Archives. During the 19th century, no law required passenger arrival records to be kept for persons entering the United States by land from Canada or Mexico. No law required the keeping of outbound passenger lists.

WHAT WE CAN SEARCH: Passenger Indexes: We can search indexes if you supply the following information: full name of the passenger, port of entry, and approximate date of arrival. The following major indexes exist: Baltimore (1820-1952), Boston (1848-91 and 1902-20), New Orleans (1853-1952), New York (1820-46 and 1897-1948), Philadelphia (1800-1948), and minor ports (1820-74 and 1890-1924). Unindexed Passenger Lists: We cannot search these lists without more specific information than we require for index searches. To search unindexed passenger lists through 1892, you must supply port of entry, name of the vessel, approximate date of arrival, and the full name of the passenger. For those lists, we can also make a search with port of embarkation, exact date of arrival, port of entry, and the full name of the passenger. To search unindexed lists after 1892, we need the port of entry, the name of the vessel, the exact date of arrival, the full name of the passenger, and the names and ages of accompanying passengers, if any. PLEASE NOTE: There is no index for New York for the period 1847 through 1896 or for the period 1949 through the present.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: You may order copies of an entire passenger list by making a specific request. Write to Old Military and Civil Records at the address above. We will notify you of the cost. In addition, you or your representatives may search records that are too voluminous for the National Archives staff to search. We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee. However, many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries. Naturalization (Citizenship) Records: Naturalization records are separate from passenger arrival lists. The National Archives has copies of naturalization papers (1798-1906) for Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Maine and original records (1802-1926) for the District of Columbia. For information about citizenship granted elsewhere through September 26, 1906, write to the Federal, State, or municipal court that issued the naturalization. The Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, DC 20536 can furnish information on naturalizations that occurred after September 26, 1906.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

Use a separate NATF Form 81 for each passenger arrival record. Remove this instruction sheet. Print your name (last, first, middle) and address in the block provided at the bottom of the form. Because of the volume of requests we receive, we are not able to write names and addresses on the form for you. We will return forms without return addresses when we are able. If the form is separated from the envelope, we will be forced to destroy requests without return addresses. The information must be legible on all copies. Keep the customer (pink) copy of the form for your records. Mail the original (white) copy of the form to: Old Military and Civil Records (NWCTB-PA), Textual Archives Services Division, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20408-0001. Please allow 8 to 10 weeks for processing your order. DO NOT SEND PAYMENT WITH THIS FORM. When we search your order, we will make photocopies of records that relate to your request. For credit card orders, we will mail the copies immediately. We accept MasterCard, VISA, American Express, and NOVUS (Discover, Bravo, Private Issue) credit cards. For other types of orders, we will invoice you for the cost of these copies and hold them up to 45 days pending receipt of your payment.

1909 she made the eastward crossing in 4 days, 17 hours and 21 minutes. Rated at 68,000 shaft horse-power. Equipped with 23 double and 2 single ended boilers working at 200 lb. pressure. In September 1928, made the Cherbourg to Ambrose Light crossing in 5 days, 2 hours, 34 minutes, a remarkable feat for a twenty-two year old liner, especially as she was at the time equipped with her original "Parson's" steam turbines. It was on the night of April 14, near midnight, that she struck a giant iceberg at full speed. The submerged part of the iceberg opened up five of the foremost water-tight compartments, thus dooming the liner with such severe damage to her hull. The Titanic did not remain afloat long, as she went down into the deep icy cold water of the North Atlantic at 2:20 A.M. on the morning that followed. I heard very little from my grandmother, Kathleen Arche, about her family. One story I do remember, though, was that she remembered seeing the Queen go by in a horse drawn carriage when she lived in England. She was an Irish citizen all her life and carried a green alien registration and.

Ernest Albert Stephens was born November 13, 1873 in Dublin, Ireland "of an old Quarer family". His parents, Albert Stephens, a merchant, and Jane Creeth Stephens, lived at 3 St. Lawrence Road in Dublin and were married there December 29, 1869.

He joined the Dunlop Tire Company in 1890, and was an assistant sales manager for Dunlop in Buffalo when he died in 1928.

Sometime prior to 1901, he moved to England where he probably married Helen Wilson who was born September 28, 1875 in Birmingham.

Their first three children, Kathleen Helen, born 6 November 1901; Greta a., born in 1906, and Nora Margaret, born in 1906, all were born in Coventry. Their fourth child, Catherine Joan, was born in 1909 in London.

In 1911, Ernest Stephens omigrated to the United States. His family joined him in Rutherford, New Jersey the following years sailing on the S.S. Megantic from Liverpool on Docember 10, 1912.

Sometime after, they moved to Buffalo, New York, where he died October 9, 1928.

Family tradition says that the family surname was formerly Fitzstephens; also that they just missed sailing on the Titanic.

Kathleen Stephens told how, as a child, she had seen the Queen riding by in a large horse-drawn carriage.

A. BIOGRAPHIES

Helen Wilson

Helen Wilson was born September 28, 1875 in Birmingham, England according to information found on her marriage certificate and on her death certificate. So far, efforts to locate a record of her birth have been unsuccessful. Wilson is a common surname and Birmingham is a large place. It also appears that she was known as Nelly so it is possible that Helen was a middle name or that her birth was filed under some other name.

She married Ernest Albert Stephens on January 3, 1900 in St. James Edgebaston, Birmingham, England. In 1912 the family moved to Rutherford, New Jersey and about 1921 to Buffalo, New York. She died May 26, 1950 in Tonawanda, New York.

Thank you for your letter regarding your Wilsona nd Stephes ancestors and check for $15.

I was unable to trace the birth of your great grandmother Helen Wilson but having traced her marriage (certificate enclosed) see that her name is recorded as Nelly.

It should now be fairly straight forward to find details of her father John Allen Wilson as well as her own birth record.

I enclose a fee schedule for your consideration and perhaps you would advise the events for which you would like certificates and enclose your check for the appropriate amount. The 1851 and 1881 census records for the Wilsons should also provide information of interest.

Your enquiry and first order is appreciated and I look forward to hearing further from you shortly.

Yours sincerely

JOHN A WARREN

Dear Mr. Warren:

This letter is in reference to your advertisement in the Jan-Feb 1988 Genealogical Helper, to find the parentage and provide a birth certificate for any English ancestor born within the last 150 years for a fee of $15.00.

I would like to obtain a copy of the birth certificate for my great-grandmother, Helen Wilson who was born 28 September 1875 in Birmingham, England. I have no more specific information as to her place of birth, however, her death certificate gives her parents names as John A. Wilson and Ellen Hartland, and her newspaper obituary names a surviving sister, Edith.

She married Ernest Albert Stephens of Dublin, Ireland, date and place unknown, but presumably in England. Their first child was my grandmother, Kathleen Helen Stephens, born 6 November 1900 in Coventry. Other children were Greta A. Stephens, born 1903 in Coventry, Nora Margaret Stephens, born 1906 in Coventry, and Catharine Joan Stephens, born 1909 in London.

Enclosed is a check for $15.00 for the birth certificate of Helen Wilson. I would be willing to pay a similar fee for a copy of her marriage certificate or for that of her parents, or for either of their birth certificates.

Sincerely,

Christopher Anderle

John A. Warren 50 Herons Way Pembury, Kent TN2 4DN England

Dear Mr. Warren:

Thank you for your prompt attention to my recent request for information on my Stephens and Wilson ancestors. The marriage certificate that you sent filled a major gap in my family history.

I would like to continue research on the Wilson family, and try again to trace the birth of Nelly (or Helen) Wilson, who was born 28 September 1875 in Birmingham, the daughter of John Allen Wilson and Ellen Hartland, and who married Ernest Albert Stephens 3 January 1900 in Birmingham.

I also would like to obtain a copy of the 1881 census for this family, if possible. The marriage certificate that you traced gives a street address of 125 Summer Road, District of St. James's Edgbaston, County of Birmingham in 1900. I assume that the 1875 birth certificate would also list a street address.

Enclosed is a check for $23.00 for the birth certificate of Nelly Wilson and for a copy of the 1881 census record for the Wilson family. Again, I would be willing to apply this fee toward other research on this family at your discretion.

Sincerely,

Christopher Anderle

Dear Mr Anderle

Thank you for your letter of Marcy 20 1988 and check for $23.

My attempts to locate the birth of Nelly (or Helen) Wilson have not been successful neither have I been able to find the marriage of John A Wilson and Ellen Hartland between 1864 and 1875.

The following births have now been checked:-

1. Nellie Gertrude Mar 1875 Aston

Slip enclosed

2. Ellen

Dec 1875 Birmingham

11 1

3. Nellie Theresa

Sarah Sep 13 1875 Wolverhampton - certificate enclosed.

In addition I checked the 1881 census for Summer Road, Edgbaston and enclose a copy of the only Wilson family found.

I am sorry the search has not located Nelly Wilson. If you are able to find any more details of the family I should be pleased to continue the search. If the birth of her sister Edith were located we should be able to locate the family in the census. So any information on Edith might be of use.

Yours sincerely

JOHN A WARREN

Hi Chris

You've been very patient! I've just this morning (Saturday) received John Allen WILSON's marriage and death certificates from my agent. They took rather longer that expected, but I think that might have been because (a) the price of the certificates is about to rise, so there might have been a rush to buy now; and (b) the General Register Office in London, where they are issued, is in the process of moving to new premises.

It's reassuring to see some official proof at last that this family really existed!

Here's a transcript of the certificates (my comments in []):

Emma HARTLAND

So his bride WAS Emma, not Ellen. And we now know that he was a schoolmaster. Pity his father's details aren't given. That MIGHT mean he was illegitimate, but sometimes just means that the father was dead at the time of marriage.

Signature, description and residence of informant:

When registered: First August 1885

Signature of Registrar : Josiah HANDS Registrar

So he had a daughter Katie who survived to maturity. And yet another address! Moseley is the next district north from King's Heath - within about a mile.

I'll get the certificates in the mail to you today, together with a statement of expenditure so far and receipts for the money you've sent. The statement won't include the cost of posting the certificates, as I won't know that before going to the Post Office. Do you want me to continue the research? If so, I'll have a think about where to go from here and how much the next stage is likely to cost.

Best wishes.

As I said, maybe having her mother's name wrong (if it WAS wrong) was the problem, and as you say maybe the year is out. We should reappraise this once we have the marriage & death certificates.

>I sent off another $30 today to cover the costs of John Allen WILSON's >marriage certificate and death certificate which I look forward to >receiving.

Thank you. I wrote to my agent yesterday to order them. She locates and orders them during one visit to London and then collects them during a subsequent one, so I anticipate receiving them in around 10 days - 2 weeks. As soon as I have them I'll e-mail you a transcript, then put the originals in the post (airmail) to you.

I see on looking at my last e-mail I omitted part of the marriage reference. I should have said that the index I found it in was that for the SEPTEMBER quarter of 1863. The reference I quoted is meaningless without the quarter - sorry!

>Thanks so much for your efforts.

It's a pleasure. I get a lot of satisfaction from solving these problems and from helping my fellow genealogists.

Best wishes.

Subject: John Allen WILSON

Date: Thursday, February 20, 1997 4:16 PM

Hi Chris

I've found something positive at last!

A ten-minute search of the deaths index microfiches revealed John Allen WILSON's death, registered in the September quarter (ie registered some time between 1 July and 30 September) of 1885 thus:

WILSON John Allen [age]55 [registration district]Kings Norton

The King's Norton registration district includes King's Heath, where we had a sighting of him in the 1886 Kelly's Directory. It looks as though he was already dead when the directory was published.

He must have been born around 1830. Unfortunately this was 7 years before civil registration of births began in England, so there is no centralised index which we can search for his birth. His baptism might, of course, be indexed on the IGI, so I spent 10 minutes looking through the fiches for the counties around Birmingham - Warwickshire, Worcestershire, Staffordshire, Shropshire, Derbyshire, Herefordshire and Cheshire, but no baptism of a John Allen WILSON is listed in any of those counties (though there are, of course, many John WILSONs). I think our only hope will be to find him in a census, which will give his birthplace. Then we could go straight to the local parish records.

Next I looked for his marriage. One looks under one party's name until a likely reference is found and then cross-checks against the other's to make sure they have the same reference. Normally I would have searched under HARTLAND, as it's a far less common name than WILSON, but because I thought there might be a slight doubt as to whether his bride was Helen or Ellen I decided to search under WILSON, assuming he would have used both his forenames. It was just as well that I did, as you will see.

Your previous search back to 1864 had been unsuccessful. Now we know that he was born around 1830 that is not surprising, as 34 would be quite old to get married, I thought. I started in 1855 (age 25) and worked back to 1850 without success, so then decided to go on from 1856 towards 1864. After 50 minutes, in 1863, the very next year beyond the end of your previous search, I found him!

WILSON John Allen [registration district] Wolverhampton [ref.]6b 634

Now for the interesting bit. I checked for a corresponding reference for Ellen or Helen HARTLAND but there wasn't one. BUT there was this:

HARTLAND Emma [reg. dist.] Wolverhampton [ref.]6b 634

If I'd searched under Ellen HARTLAND I would have ignored this entry and never found the marriage!

There are two possibilities - a mis-indexing or (and I think this more likely) a mis-reporting of her mother's name on Helen STEPHENS' (n WILSON's) death certificate of 1950.

This might explain why searches for Helen WILSON's birth certificate have been unsuccessful. Registration officers are not very imaginative, and if an application for a certificate gave the mother's name as Ellen when it was really Emma the certificate might not be issued because the information given didn't match the register entry.

Armed with my new knowledge I tried the 1881 census indexes for the Birmingham area again, but still without success. I also checked the births index for the December quarter of 1875 but found no likely entries other than those you already have. I also tried the December quarter of 1874 and 1876 in case her birth day was right but her age was a year out. There was a Nellie Louisa WILSON in the King's Norton registration district in 1876. I found her in the 1881 census index but her parents were far too young.

I'm afraid that I have now, once again, used all the research time which you have paid for.

To get any further we really need more information on John Allen WILSON's marriage. Unfortunately this can only be obtained in the form of a marriage certificate, which would cost me 6 pounds 75 pence including a 1 pound 25 pence agent's fee which I would have to pay to the agent who obtains certificates from London for me. It would also be interesting, though maybe not vital, to have a copy of John Allen's death certificate, which would cost the same. I would make no charge myself for obtaining these, but just pass on my expenses to you. I calculate that at 1.61 dollars to the pound and allowing for my postage costs writing to my agent and sending the certificates to you, and the usual currency conversion fee of 3 pounds, you would need to pay me 28 dollars 54 cents (or thereabouts!) for the two certificates.

I hope that you find this interesting, and await your further instructions.

Best wishes.

Hi Chris

Sorry I've been a while getting back to you.

I revisited Birmingham at the end of last week, and spent the rest of your time working through street directories of the Birmingham area, registers of electors, and the 1891 census microfiches.

The earliest directory I checked was for 1884, and there was no trace of John Allen WILSON and family therein, but from 1886 onwards I managed to locate them, as follows:

KELLY's directory 1886

WILSON John Allen, 'Roxford', Valentine Rd., King's Heath WILSON John, 68 Summer Rd., Edgbaston [the second of these is the one found in your previous 1881 census search - this is additional confirmation that he isn't 'your' John WILSON as he couldn't be in two places at once]

ditto 1888

WILSON Mrs., 'Droxford House', Valentine Rd., King's Heath [so presumably John Allen WILSON has died]

ditto 1894

→ WILSON Mrs., 'Meadowside', Valentine Rd., King's Heath

EVERSON's directory 1896

→ WILSON Mrs. E., 2 Valentine Rd., King's Heath ['E' for Ellen]

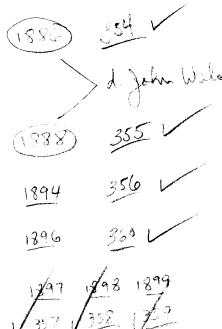

KELLY 1897, 1898, 1899

→ WILSON Mrs., 125 Summer Rd., Edgbaston

KELLY 1901 + register of electors 1901-2 Miss Charlotte Jane DEWSON, 125 Summer Rd., Edgbaston [no sign of Mrs. WILSON]

It seems from this that John Allen WILSON and family moved into the area around 1885 (directories are probably a few months out of date) and that he died around 1886-1888. His widow and family continued to live in Valentine Rd., King's Heath (either in several houses or one which was renamed - Roxford probably = Droxford anyway - printing error?) until around 1896, when they moved to 125 Summer Rd., Edgbaston. After her daughter Helen married, Mrs WILSON moved out of the area again.

Now I thought I had them pinned down and would have no problem finding them in the 1891 census for King's Heath. Imagine my mortification when I found that they simply WEREN'T THERE!! I must have spent a good ten minutes going through Valentine Road hoping they would pop up, but they didn't. They seem to be a very secretive family.

I also looked through the national wills indexes for 1885-1895 to see whether there was a will or administration for John Allen WILSON, but there didn't seem to be one.

Well, that's it. We know a bit more about them now, but not as much as I had hoped. Should you wish me to proceed any further I would suggest the following.

We know John Allen WILSON's approximate date of death, so it should be possible to locate his death in the national indexes. They give age at death, so one does not need immediately to go to the expense of buying a death certificate to get that information. Armed with that age I could calculate a birth date and, hopefully, find a record of his birth in the national indexes. This would give a year and a place (registration district) and help narrow the search for his marriage and his daughter's birth. I could obtain the relevant certificates for you in due course and possibly locate the family in some earlier census returns.

If you do want me to pursue this a further 30 dollars would cover just under 2 hours of research time. Certificates of birth etc would, of course, be extra, but would not need to be obtained immediately.

I await your further instructions.

Best wishes.

Chris

Further to my e-mail of 16 Jan, I visited Birmingham on 17 Jan as planned.

I visited the Birmingham Register Office and applied for a birth certificate, using the details you had given me. They carried out a 5 year search of their indexes, but couldn't find 'your' Helen / Ellen / Nelly WILSON. The one born in the Dec qr of 1875 didn't have the right parents.

Then I visited the Central Library. First I did a 5 minute check on the IGI for Warwickshire, Staffordshire and Worcestershire (Birmingham spreads into all 3 counties) to see if there was any sign of Helen's baptism or her parents' marriage, but there wasn't. Then I tried the 1881 census indexes for all 3 counties, and found no sign of the family. The indexes cover all surviving census returns, so unless they were not in the Birmingham area in 1881 they must have been missed by the census, or the return has not survived (a few are missing), or they have been mis-indexed (some of the census enumerators had terrible handwriting, and some of the census microfilms are feint and hard to read).

My research time so far has totalled 30 minutes. As I didn't have to pay out for a certificate, I still have around 10 pounds in hand, enough for over an hour's further research. I could check the 1891 census (which has only been available since 1992) for the address given on the marriage certificate, and if the family isn't there I could try to find them in a contemporary directory or register of electors to get another census address to search, and follow up any other leads I might find, within the time you've paid for.

Would that be OK? I'll be returning to Birmingham within the next week.

Best wishes, and sorry I haven't found anything (yet).

Many thanks for your comprehensive and most helpful reply.

>Also. I find that >a search for the birth of Helen Wilson turned up the following:

>Nellie Gertrude Wilson, Mar 1875, Aston

>Ellen Wilson, Dec 1875, Birmingham

>Nellie Theresa Sarah Wilson, Sep 13, 1875, Wolverhampton

>I have a certificate for the Sep 13, 1875 birth and it is not the right >person. I do not have certificates for the other two, and now I wonder >if "Dec 1875" refers to the quarter and year recorded and perhaps >the Sept 28, 1875 birth was recorded in the Dec 1875 quarter? >Possibly this Ellen Wilson birth is the one I'm looking for - I may >never have gone beyond the index thinking that it was the wrong >name.

I think it very likely that the first and second of the 3 entries you've listed are references to the quarterly indexes, as you suspect. A birth on 28 September 1875 is unlikely to have been registered until October 1875, which would bring it into the December quarter (indexes are based on registration date, not birth date), so this one may well be 'your' Helen / Ellen WILSON.

I can apply for a birth certificate, specifying parents' names. If the right one I will have to pay 5.50 UK pounds for it, but if not I won't have to pay anything.

I would e-mail the contents of the certificate to you as soon as I obtained it and airmail the original to you as soon as possible thereafter.

- >Also, I find in my records that the 1881 census was checked for >Summer Road, Edgbaston only, and one Wilson family was found: >John Wilson, wife Ann, children William John and Charles at number >68 Summer Road. Was the index available in 1988?
- No the comprehensive index (which is county based) has only been available for a year or two at the most. If 'your' family were in the Birmingham area there is a very good chance of finding them.
- >I think I would like to try again for the birth record for Helen Wilson >and check the 1881 census index, and only look for her parents >marriage record if the census gives a better idea of when to search.

I agree that this seems the best first stage. Total cost would be 5.50 UK pounds for the birth certificate plus 7.50 pounds to cover one hour of research time plus say 1 pound for postage (should actually be slightly less). Say 15 pounds altogether (would allow for a little extra research time if necessary). The US dollar equivalent would be 25 dollars.

If you want me to carry out this first research stage for you there are several ways you could pay me:

- 1. Another US client, from Erie, Pennsylvania, sends me a cheque issued by his bank but made payable in pounds sterling (ie UK pounds) and drawn on an English bank. This I can pay straight into my bank account without incurring any extra cost. If you can do this the cheque should be for 15 pounds sterling, made payable to Roger Hall and sent to my snailmail address (as at the end of this e-mail 18 Hazeldene Gardens etc.). It MUST be drawn on an English bank.
- 2. By your using the services of Ruesch International. They are based in Washington DC and can be contacted toll-free on 0800 424-2923. Apparently they are 'used and praised by many genealogists'. This is how I understand they work. You would phone them and tell them you wanted a cheque in UK pounds for 15 UK pounds made payable to Roger Hall and sent to my snailmail address (as at the end of this e-mail 18 Hazeldene Gardens etc.). They would agree an exchange rate with you and you would mail them a cheque for the US dollar equivalent of 15 UK pounds + a 2 US dollar service charge. On receipt of your cheque they would airmail me a cheque for 15 UK pounds which I could then pay directly into my bank account without incurring any extra cost.
- 3. By sending an ordinary cheque made payable to me in US dollars. I would have to get this converted to UK pounds at this end by Ruesch International, and this would cost me the equivalent of 5 US dollars, so your cheque would have to be for 30 US dollars.
- 4. By sending me 30 US dollars in banknotes (I think you call them bills) by airmail very quick and easy but not quite as safe as the other methods. Again you would be paying 5 dollars extra to cover the conversion fee I would have to pay at this end.

I could complete the research within a week of receiving your payment.

I hope this is helpful. If you've any more questions please don't hesitate to ask.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes.

Roger

Subject: Re: Warwickshire (including Birmingham) research

Hello Chris

Thank you for replying to my advert.

First a bit about me. I was a local government officer from 1966 until the middle of last year, leading a research and records team from 1978. I have been pursuing family history as a hobby since 1968 and have been carrying out a worldwide one-name study on the DRAKEFORD family (that's my mother's mother's maiden name) since 1993. I am a Member of the Society of Genealogists and the Guild of One-Name Studies and a contributor to the Journal of One-Name Studies. I left local government service and began professional family history research at the end of May 1996.

I have satisfied clients in the USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, and can supply references if needed.

I can carry out research for you, searching whatever sources you specify or we decide together, in Record Offices, in local studies libraries, in churches, chapels, graveyards and cemeteries throughout Warwickshire (including Birmingham). I'm also prepared to consider work in adjacent counties. I provide a full transcript of every source, quote full references for all documents used and give a precise location for every grave visited. I will also photograph graves etc.

Results would be e-mailed to you, with any certificates, photocopies and the like airmailed as soon as possible thereafter.

Consultations are FREE and entirely without obligation.

I charge 7.50 UK pounds per hour for research time plus whatever fees I have to pay for currency conversion, certificates, postage etc., payable in advance of any research. If you're in the USA the dollar equivalent to 7.50 pounds is about 13 dollars. I do not normally charge for travelling expenses. If you decide to use me we can discuss method of payment when we next exchange e-mails.

Now to your specific query.

>I am interested in locating information about the family of my >great-grandmother Helen Wilson who was born in Birmingham >on 28 September 1875. She died in Buffalo, New York on 26 >May 1950. I have tried in the past to find a record of her birth >but have been unsuccessful. There is a possibility that she >was called Nellie and I wonder if this might explain the >difficulty in finding a birth record.

Might she also have been registered as Ellen (named after her mother) which I have often found used interchangably with Helen for the same person? I could apply directly to the Register Office at Birmingham for a birth certificate, specifying all possible options.

- >I have a copy of her marriage record on 03 January 1900 in
- >Edgbaston to Ernest Albert Stephens who was "of an old
- >Quaker family" from Dublin, Ireland. I have his family well-
- >documented for many generations.

Do you have a full copy of the marriage register entry? At which church in Edgbaston were they married? The register entry should give her father's name - does it agree with that on her death certificate? Does the register give exact addresses for the bride and groom?

>Helen Wilson's death certificate gives her parents as John >Allen Wilson and Ellen Hartland. I have been unable to >find anything additional about them.

It should be possible to find their marriage. Have you searched the civil registration indexes (and if so, for what period)?

- >I have additional information about Helen Wilson's
- >children who were born in Coventry and London. Also,
- >I know that she had a sister Edith Wilson who married
- >Ernest Bennett and moved to Bogota, New Jersev.

What do you know about Edith's early history? Was she older or younger than Helen? If older, it would narrow down the search period for their parents' marriage.

> Can you tell me what the possibilities are for research >on this family and what the costs would be? I have >been working on my family history for 25 years and >normally prefer doing the research myself, but this is >a major gap that I have been unable to fill.

I could try to locate Helen's birth certificate and her parents' marriage certificate as outlined above, and also try to locate the family in the 1881 census (now fully indexed so quick to use). Helen would have been five years old then, and the census should give details of any siblings alive then and the ages and birthplaces of her parents. This information would then make searching for their marriage and their births/baptisms much easier. If you've already exhausted some of these possibilities there are others I could try.

If you can answer the questions I've asked above, I can assess how much work would be needed to carry out the first stage of the research, and how much it would cost.

I hope that I can be of assistance to you, and look forward to hearing from you.

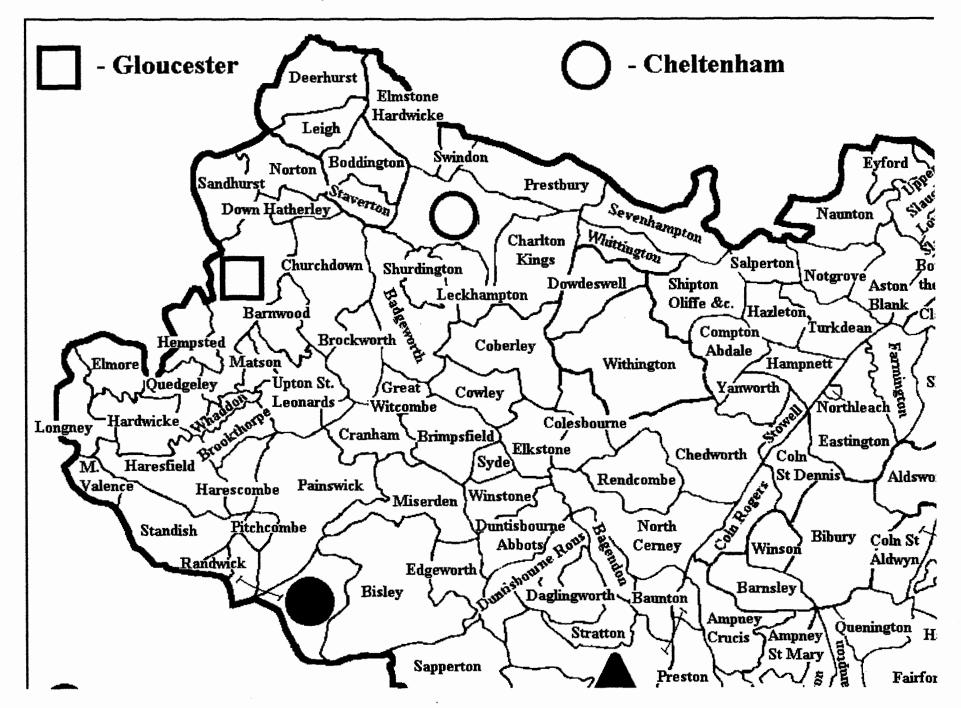

Best wishes.

Roger
